

Workshop - Challenges in eradicating modern slavery.

The goal of this workshop is to explore a range of issues to do with modern slavery, with a particular focus on Brazil. The workshop brings together researchers, policy-makers and experts to discuss this pressing social and political issue. We will hear from Dr. Gustavo T. Accioly from the Brazilian Labour Ministry who is working to eradicate modern slavery in the fashion industry. He will present findings from a recent project 'We are not slaves of fashion', carried out in Brazil, that has informed the strategies adopted by the Public Ministry of Labor to tackle modern slavery.

Time: 10.00am-12.30pm Date: 25th June 2019 Contact: Dr Will Baker(bakerw@cf.ac.uk)

Location: Council Chamber, School of Social Sciences, Glamorgan Building.

9.30-9.45

Arrival and registration (refreshments and pastries!)

9.45-10am

Introduction and welcome. Dr Shailen Nandy, Cardiff University.

10.00-10.30am

Keynote: Modern slavery and the fashion industry. Dr. Gustavo Accioly, Ministério Público do Trabalho (Public Ministry of Labor).

10.30-10.45am

Managing Poverty: Public policies and violations of rights in cases of separation of families and its relationship to modern slavery. Janaína Gomes, University of São Paulo and Catholic University of Campinas.

10.45-11.00am

Class, race and contemporary slave labour in Brazil. Camila Nicácio, Federal University of Minas Gerais.

11.00am-11.15am

Social development and slave work in Brazil. Eduardo Henrique Lopes Figueiredo, State University of Londrina.

11.15-11.30am

Modern slavery and poverty. Guilherme Assis de Almeida, University of São Paulo.

11.30-11.50am

Modern slavery: a perspective from the UK. Andrew Davies, Gangmaster and Labour Abuse Authority, Senior Investigating Officer for the South West of the UK.

11.50-12.15pm

Q&A followed by lunch.